Rise, Tarnished “Thank you.” The voice could not belong to an adult, but he was male. It sounded like an adolescent boy’s. The lights and sounds started to fade and his eyelids grew heavy. The more he tried to hold on to consciousness, the more the sensations of the world faded away. There was a sound of rain pattering the ground. He could see a thunderstorm around him. He could feel the cool breeze on his cheek. A noise coming from far away seemed to be telling him to rest. His heart seemed to be too heavy for his body, and it was like his body was made of sand. would sink through the ground as if it were water. He felt his mind was drifting away from the world, and he felt like he was being transported. The power of the Elder Ring shone brightly around him. “Those who do not know you do not have the power, but those who have no power will be replaced by you.” A voice said, breaking the silence of the darkness and the thunder. The voice continued: “Those who have no power will be replaced by you.” The voice became lower as if it was repeating his words, and a bright light appeared in the darkness. His eyelids grew very heavy, and he felt the world’s power flowing into him and settling deep into his body. “There are two kinds of human beings. There are people like me, who are made of flesh and blood, and there are those who are made of stone.” The voice grew in power, and he saw a man with his eyes wide open. The man was proud, and his back straight. “However, the former shall be destroyed, and the latter shall be promoted.” His body was enveloped in warmth and his heart seemed to be thumping strongly. “Not many people know this, but I am an ‘Elden Lord’.” The man’s eyes sparkled as he smiled. He spoke in a youthful voice. “Numerous people might know who the Leader of the Elden Ring is, but they do not know who the deepest

La chef de l'opposition fait les frais d'un droit à la parole donné à des militants, qui sont venues manifester contre elle lors de la dernière élection partielle, dans la circonscription de Parc-Extension, en juin 2018. Les manifestants reprochent à Mme Laporte le saccage des racines de la petite-cousine avec la formation de Jean-Talon et le niveau de vie des citoyens de l'arrondissement.
