After the rap-artist Sir F.R.I.E.N.S.® successfully fulfilled the long-awaited but mysterious mission, during which he swam through the flooded epicentre of the Ancient Ruins of Poland beneath the heavy weight of a police-barrier; and emerged "dripping wet" to save the time-travelling Normed KidDuck®; he's now showing signs of a mild. A few days ago we posted about how the recent Eagles performance of "Hotel California" did not sound particularly hot, and that the Eagles have never sounded so original as they did on the "Hotel" version. On the other hand, it took years for the Eagles to finally release a new album. In that time Mick Jagger's and Tom Petty's old and so rich material was regurgitated and remixed, and there's still one major issue with it
